

Summer ArtGarden

BURGES MEADOW, MAUNDOWN
WIVELISCOMBE

BANK HOLIDAY MONDAY
25TH MAY 2009
11am - 5pm

Art works by local artists
Sculptures
Hillside garden with stream, ponds and waterfalls
Workshops and Demonstrations
Storytelling
Live music
Food & Drink
Plants, Pots & Art for sale

Admission: £3.50. School children free
Proceeds to the 10 Parishes Festival 2009

Are you keen on visiting gardens or art and sculpture?

Then come to Burges Meadow, Maundown, Wiveliscombe, on Bank Holiday Monday 25th May to enjoy...

- Fabulous art works in the garden, by local artists including: Tilly Willis, Clare DuVergier, Raamy Nadim, Lyn Mowat, Jim Munnion, David Manners, Melanie Deegan, Sam Jeffs, Hayley Weaver, Tom Wood, Gavin Paramour, Helen Maasz, Michael Fairfax and others
- Early Summer plants, trees, waterfalls and streams
- Workshops and Demonstrations
- Storytelling by Beth Webb
- Home made soups, lunches, coffees and teas by Food for Thought and Skymango Catering
- A selection of wines from The Wine Shed
- Plants from Beggars Roost & Secret Meadow
- Terracotta pots by Jackie Duncan
- Willow weaving by Izzy Beazley
- Music by Kim McGavin and Friends

Where: Bob and Pauline Homeshaw, Burges Meadow, Maundown, Wiveliscombe TA4 2HL.

When: Bank Holiday Monday May 25th, 11 am – 5pm

Directions: Go from Wiveliscombe through Langley Marsh. After half a mile turn right immediately after the Wessex Water facility (follow ArtGarden signs). Burges Meadow is on the right after half a mile. (Distance from Wiveliscombe 2 miles). Ample parking available.

Admission: £3.50. School children free
Partial disabled access

For more information:

01984 624564 / homeshaw@bopenworld.com

www.10parishesfestival.org.uk

Proceeds to the 10 Parishes Festival 2009